A HEART-TO-HEART MOMENT

December 2025 – “Making Room for Christ”

The Christmas season can become so busy that we risk missing its heart. Between decorating, shopping, and planning gatherings, we can forget the most important invitation of all, making room for Christ.

When Mary and Joseph arrived in Bethlehem, there was no room for them in the inn. Yet in a humble stable, the Savior of the world was born. This story reminds us that God often enters quietly, in the middle of the ordinary, when our hearts are open.

This Advent, I invite you to slow down and create space for God. Light a candle, pray as a family, read Luke 2, or serve someone in need. Every small act of kindness becomes a manger where Christ can be born again in our world.

As we make room for Christ, it is also a good time to reflect on what it means to be the church. The church is not just a building or a weekly routine; it is a family of believers gathered by Christ. Scripture reminds us, “There is one body, but many parts... Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it” (1 Corinthians 12:12-27). We gather because God meets us in community in a way we cannot experience alone.

We go to church because we need one another. When we worship, pray, and serve together, Christ forms us into His people. As Paul says again, “Now you are the body of Christ, and individually members of it” (1 Corinthians 12:27). Church is where faith is nurtured, where children learn to pray, where adults grow deeper in Christ, and where our lives are shaped by grace.

Theologians Brad Harper and Paul Louis Metzger describe it beautifully:

“The church is not merely a gathering of individuals; it is a people called and shaped by the risen Christ to bear witness to God’s kingdom in the world.” (Exploring Ecclesiology, Brazos Press, 2009, p. 46)

And our United Methodist tradition says, “The church is a community of all true believers under the lordship of Christ... the redeemed and redeeming fellowship.” (Book of Discipline, 2016, ¶101)

As we celebrate Christmas, may we also make room in our church for those seeking peace, love, and belonging. A simple welcome, a smile, or a prayer may be the light someone needs this season.

A Joke for you:

What do you call people who are afraid of Santa Claus? Claustrophobic!

Blessing:

May the light of Christ shine in your heart, your home, and your world this Advent, Christmas and always.

Yours truly, Pastor Anny
